Introduction

Sessions 1-2

We will run sessions as a team

1. All organizations are complex
2. All members must work as a team: all are key for success
3. An excellent leader is useless without a competitive “crew”

Introduction

Content:

Introduction

- Horngren, C.T., Datar, S.M. and Rajan M.V. 2015. Cost Accounting: A Managerial Emphasis. 17th Edition. Global Edition. Pearson.

- Office hours: to arrange by mail (adeparellada@faculty.ie.edu)

Evaluation (1): overview

Participation in class	10%
2 Assignments in class (in groups): 5 + 15	20%
Midterm exam	30%
Final exam	40%

Evaluation (2): exams

Format of midterm and final:

- The problems part of the exams will be done using multiple choice. Multiple choice questions marked wrong will subtract one fourth of the value of the question.

- The conceptual questions: students answer in words, limiting the number of lines they can use.

Graded activities

Session 8:	5% (assignment in groups)
Session 14:	30% (midterm exam)
Sessions 23-24:	15% (assignment in groups & presentations)
Session 25:	40% (final exam) **(*)
All sessions:	10% (class participation)

(*) Students pass the subject if the average of their grades, weighted according to the percentages shown above, is 5 or more and if they obtain a minimum of 4.5 in the final exam. Students who obtain less than 4.5 in the final exam and whose average grade is higher than 4.5 will obtain a 4.5 as their final grade.

Attendance

- Attendance: 20% of 25 sessions = 5 max. absences
- Required to attend on campus
